WELCOME TO THE GROUNDS OF TIBA

After two years cut off from the world, Bali is opening its arms to global travelers once again, and TIBA is offering the warmest welcome of all. Our creative village celebrating music, art and sustainable food, design and architecture with a "good times, do good" attitude is buzzing with life and regenerative hospitality, ready to inspire and excite the dynamic community near and far.

TIBA is a creative playground with inspiring activities happening in every corner of the property. There's energy activation and meditation under the rising sun, morning yoga for kids and adults, art installations made out of waste, sustainable workshops for all ages, jamu making, our curated library, and listening lounge. This onsite studio space and record store doubles as a digital streaming platform, designed to shine a light on voices, stories and sounds from Indonesia and around the world.

Finally, our Headonism weekends of pure, multi-sensory indulgence continue to thrill guests monthly with complete immersion into the one-of-a-kind TIBA lifestyle via experimental music sessions, sustainability workshops, ice baths and inventive sundowners.
